

Broadway School of Music & the Arts

FREE ONLINE SENIOR ART & MUSIC CLASSES

Join other Cleveland area seniors from the comfort of your home to learn new skills or tune up existing skills while meeting new people and having fun.

Supplies for all the classes are provided.
You just need to be able to access Zoom from your own personal device.

Collage: Together, we will explore elements of collage such as color, design, and texture while reflecting on the important moments in our lives. Through the transformation of photographs, magazine images, natural items, fabrics, and found materials, we will visually represent the stories of our lives. We will gather precious items and create a memory box to hold our artwork, incorporating our own personal and artistic flair. Storytelling is encouraged throughout the process! Instructor: Christine Hill

Mondays, 1:00pm-2:30pm

March 15 - May 24 (no class March 29). Supplies provided.

Community Choir: Via zoom, we will begin with vocal warm-ups and move along to learning some of the group's beloved songs. In a fun and low-pressure way, the group will learn to read music so songs from the page will be taken to the virtual stage. (While a video platform such as zoom is recommended, seniors can participate via phone.)

Instructor: Sheela Das

Wednesdays, 3:00-4:30

March 17 - May 19

These programs are supported by our community partners: University Settlement, Senior Citizen Resources, May Dugan Center, Fatima Family Center.

To register, go to www.broadwayschool.org or call (216)641-0630.

Registration deadline March 8. Space is limited.

Funding provided by

Supported by

PAUL M. ANGELL
FAMILY FOUNDATION

